Most people consider life a battle, but it is not a battle, it is a game. It is a game, however, which cannot be played successfully without the knowledge of spiritual law, and the Old and the New Testaments give the rules of the game with wonderful clearness. Jesus Christ taught that it was a great game of Giving and Receiving.

Thomas Pavel is a storyteller, and The Lives of the Novel: A History is as much a story itself as it is a book about stories. Pavel’s compelling thesis is that the novel emerges in the eighteenth century from proto-novelistic forms like the tale and picaresque, and, as it does so, it moves from the realm of idealism or moral prescription into ...
