The Ars Amatoria, published about 1 BCE, is a guidebook for seduction; it includes many tips and tricks which would not be out of place in a modern dating manual. The first two books are written from a male point of view; the last book, which was probably written at a later date, is addressed to women.

As we've already mentioned, the first five books of the Bible are called The Torah, in Hebrew (from the word Horaa, which means "Instruction," or from the word Ohr—"Light"). When it comes to advancing upward along the ray that had been sent down into the darkness of our world, the Light is your manual.
