Terry Knight and the Pack (earlier known as the Pack) was an American garage rock band formed in Flint, Michigan in 1965. The band was signed to the Lucky Eleven label throughout most of its short recording career, and they produced one national hit with their cover version of the song, "I (Who Have Nothing)". Despite their inability to replicate their success, the band was still a frequent ...

The only problem I had when it came to deciding on the logo design, was choosing which option to go with. They had met my brief too well! So for someone like me, who is just starting out but wanting to create a brand that will last, you can't go past We Love Startups. Their passion shines through the work they produce and I am absolutely thrilled with the final result!
